President's Message

It will be difficult to follow Margaret Allen as President of the Association.

The outstanding administration of Margaret deserves the appreciation and praise of us all.

With the help of all officers and members and with a great deal of humility and prayer, I will do my best as your new President. My feeling, I must confess is somewhat that of a re-tread, having served as President some twenty odd years ago.

As we all are, I am looking forward to a year of progress, interest and growth for the Association. It is my sincere hope that many of our members can keep in personal contact with one another throughout the year.

I wish, on behalf of all members, to extend a warm welcome and greeting to our many new members.

With best wishes to all,

CHARLES W. RICE

1974 REUNION

Eighty cousins and friends gathered on the 28th of September for the 62nd Association Anniversary and the 336th year of Deacon Edmund Rice's family in America at this years location at Wayside Inn, South Sudbury, Massachusetts.

The legend is that the day of our meeting is invariably a fine fall day. Just made it! It rained while many of us were on our way home.

The registration and social hour was held in the upstairs ballroom and adjoining rooms beginning at 10:30 A.M. At 11:20 our annual meeting was called to order by Mrs. Margaret E. Allen, president. The election of officers was held. We are very sorry that Margaret E. Allen will no longer be able to continue her duties as president due to pressures of her work. Thus our 1st vice president, Charles W. Rice of Wrentham became our new president. Charles had served as president previously in 1955.

Reports were read by our recording secretary, Mrs. Beatrice W. Johnson, and treasurer, John E. Rice. Also, Stanley I. Rice gave us a sales progress report on the books available through the association.

In appreciation for the many years of faithful service to the association, particularly the handling of the Rice publications and genealogy work, it was voted to grant life membership in the association to Stanley I. and Tene Rice of Worcester, Mass., and Ray Lowther Ellis of Cambridge, Mass. Without them our association wouldn't be what it is today.

Dues for the 1975-1976 year will likely be one dollar more making the dues $3.00 per person per year. Like everything else, we just will have to increase them with the postage and news letter cost what they are.

Token gifts were presented to the oldest member present, 87 year old Edwin W. Proctor of Northborough, Massachusetts and the youngest present, 17 year old Miss Ilee Welch from Wellesley, Massachusetts. Also a gift was presented to Mrs. Mary H. Lewis for coming the furthest distance from Holbrook, Arizona.

Three past presidents were present at our meeting, Charles W. Rice, Stanley I. Rice and Allen F. Rice.

After the annual meeting concluded, luncheon was served in the main ballroom with the excess overflow eating in two other areas. Very delicious meal.

Margaret E. Allen and her sister, Mrs. Nora Garner Riggs presented our afternoon program. It consisted of the use of xylophones with a sing along. Songs that had been used many years before at reunions. You should have heard those Rices sing!!!

Before we all parted our ways for home, we went over to the Old Sudbury Road Cemetery in Wayland for a service and placing of a wreath on Deacon Edmund Rice's grave. In closing we all joined a circle around his grave saying one to another "Best of Health, Good Luck and God Bless until we meet again next year."

NEWS NOTES

When the reunion reservations and dues were coming to our historian, Margaret S. Rice, she received many notes from folks unable to attend the reunion for various reasons, distance, illness or other commitments. Wish you could have been with us Ella A. Knapton, Corinne McLaughlin, Mr. & Mrs. Alden Clark, Mrs. Elizabeth Travis McGowan, Bernice Showalter, Callie Burris Wiley, Gladys M. Brown, Charles L. Hayward, and Theresa Jemison.

Theresa Jemison of Basom, N.Y. had to cancel since it was her sisters 25th wedding anniversary. She had been a member of the wedding party and felt she did want to go to the anniversary celebration.

We received word from Charles L. Hayward of Minneapolis, Minn. that he would be unable to attend our reunion this year since on September 28th, he would be at the Annual Reunion of those who served in the Balloon Service, W.W.I, at Omaha, Nebraska. It was at Omaha where they were organized in June 1917 and where he trained. Charles had five months on "the line," as an Observer and as a Balloon Company Commander.

Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin F. Stone of Fargo, North Dakota, (Estelle Rice Stone) celebrated their 50th Wedding Anniversary in August, by flying to Washington, D.C., and Maryland to be with their son and his family, August 22nd.

Mrs. Margaret Morrell of Cochrane, Massachusetts writes "The people who live next door to the Rice Spring here in Wayland on the Old Connecticut Path uncovered some foundation stones last year, which they believe belonged to the old Rice house which was beside the spring."

Mrs. Cyril M. Edmunds, R.D. 1, Lee Center, N.Y. 13363 writes, "My book 'Journey Across Plowed Ground' will be ready in September 1974. It is ancestors and descendants of Joel Baker, Revolution War soldier from New Ipswich, N.H. whose parents were Joseph and Dinah (Rice) Baker. See page 77 of Rice Family by Ward for Dinah's ancestry. Joseph Baker's ancestry is incorrect in this work. This book is available from compiler for $12.00."

Mr. and Mrs. Stanley I. Rice of Worcester, Massachusetts have motored to Hudson, Wisconsin where their son Frederick H. Rice will be married October 19th.

During a vacation in the Adirondacks this past summer, Whiting and Larisa Rice, of Plainville, Mass. climbed Mt. Ampersand. They were photographed on the summit beside the memorial plaque to Whiting Rice's great grandfather, Walter C. Rice, who served as fire warden on the peak of Ampersand from 1915-1924.

While vacationing at Block Island, Rhode Island last August, Charles W. Rice introduced himself to Cousin Herbert S. Whitman. Cousin Herbert retired to Block Island to pursue his hobby of writing, but now finds himself the very active head of The Town Government. We are looking forward to seeing Cousin Herbert at our next annual meeting.

IN MEMORIAM

Mrs. Edith Anna Cole Lysne, page 900 (IX 1705 b.3.6.1) in the Rice Register died 14 January 1974 at Temple City, California. We extend our sympathy to her family.

Heidi Kynoch Rice, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Hamilton Rice of 1030 West Street, Pittsfield, Massachusetts, granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Thompson Rice of Pittsfield, Mass. married 28 September 1974 Laurids T. Lauridsen III son of Mr. and Mrs. Lauridsen, Jr., of New London, New Hampshire. The ceremony was performed at the New London Historical Society where the reception followed.

INFORMATION WANTED

Does anyone have any information concerning the building of the Amasa Rice house in Pittsfield, Mass.? The house is made of cobblestones, quite unique. The legend was that Amasa ran a stage coach from Pittsfield to Springfield and used to stop and pick up any likely looking stone he saw along the way. The present owner, Mrs. Lillian March, 1647 East St., Pittsfield, Mass. 01201 would be grateful for any information.

(If you visit the Pittsfield Museum, you will see the subject of Oliver Wendell Holmes' poem, "The Wonderful One-Hoss Shay." It was owned by Amasa Rice #4035.) Quote from News Letter #17-Oct. 1968.

If you have any information on the following questions kindly forward it to Mrs. William Wardlaw, 3146 W. Ashcroft, Fresno, Calif., 93705.

Place of death and burial of Rial Holden Rice, died 15 October 1894—not in his home in Oldfield, Ohio but while on a trip—where?

Need to prove he was son of Ancel Rice of Dover Village, Ohio. Ancel died 3 June 1849—buried in Dover, Ohio. Does anyone know who his children were?

(In News Letter #8—June 1964 a correspondent asked, "Who was Rial Rice, father of Nettie Belle Rice, an early settler in northern Ohio?") You see we never give up looking and checking.

Allen Bartlett Rice, P.O. Box 814, Chautauqua, N.Y. 14722 and Mrs. Edith Gay Rice Kreider, 426 Swan St., Dunkirk, N.Y. 14048, brother and sister, know their ancestry only as far back as their great-grandfather, Philip Addison Rice of Ripley, N.Y. Can anyone help find his parents?

INFORMATION

Mrs. Grace Rice Edstrom of Auburn, Massachusetts has this information to pass along to us. Did you know that some of the graves that were dug up on the Worcester, Massachusetts Common are buried in Hope Cemetery, Worcester, Massachusetts?

There is a large monument that is engraved with this epitaph. "The remains of 111 persons who were buried on Worcester Common and removed to this place during the construction of Worcester Center in 1968.

47 listed below are interred with their gravestones laid flat above them. The remainder without gravestones are unidentified."

Mrs. Edstroms' ancestor, Gershom Rice, 2nd settler of Worcester 1768 is buried there.

If you are in Worcester and would care to see this monument, follow Main Street south to Webster Square; then take Webster Street which runs parallel with Main Street on the left, to Hope Cemetery on the left. Take the second entrance and just inside the gate turn right. At the end of this street you will see the large monument.
