

Edmund Rice (1638) Association Newsletter

416 Shirley Place, Valdosta, GA 31605-6422 Vol. 88, No.3 Summer 2014

The Edmund Rice Association publishes the newsletter four times a year: 1) Winter 2) Spring 3) Summer 4) Fall. The summer newsletter is devoted to the annual September Reunion and includes a description of the program and registration information. The other three newsletters include information of more general interest to our members. We invite all cousins to submit their genealogical information, newsletter corrections, items of interest, family articles and pictures, obituaries and queries. Send them to the newsletter editor: Susan Berger at editor@edmund-rice.org

President's Column

Greetings, cousins!

In the last issue, I promised to talk about finding the correct volume at Family Search for a lookup in the Massachusetts vital records when the Family Search index doesn't seem to have the desired individual. As I remarked last time, the index has curious lapses, stemming from a combination of wretched handwriting by the town clerks, unstable inks, deteriorating paper, out-of-focus microfilming, and unfamiliarity of the volunteer indexers with old-fashioned naming practices or the geography of Massachusetts. The bottom line is that some index items are not findable in searching with the correct name, even after allowing for the misspelling-tolerant lookup system.

What to do? In some cases, the researcher may already have a fairly precise idea of when and where the event took place, but Family Search is not organized to look up a particular time and place. As it happens, the browse facility for Massachusetts births and marriages offers up a list of "digital folders" where the images are stored, but the online finding aid is the FHL catalog organized by microfilm numbers. Fortunately, there is a one-to-one correspondence between folders and films, but, unfortunately, the folder and film numbers are unrelated to each other. I found myself constructing my own finding aid by downloading the film catalog and the lists of folder numbers and painstakingly mapping the two frames of reference. Of course, this finding aid is complicated by the fact that there is yet another (haphazard) mapping between film numbers and the original volume numbers of the Massachusetts vital records, as well as a (systematic) mapping between volume numbers and years and a varying mapping between volumes and counties within each year. For example, consider digital folder 4279596, which corresponds to FHL film 1433031. According to the catalog, it contains volumes 245 (p. 200 to the end), 246, and 253, covering marriages for parts of 1872 and 1873. As it happens, p. 200 is in the middle of the 1872 annual marriage report for the town of Holliston in Middlesex County, and this folder/film then proceeds alphabetically by town within each county and alphabetically by county through the rest of 1872 (except that Dukes County is grouped with Nantucket for geographic reasons). Volume 246 covers Suffolk and Worcester Counties. Volume 253 covers Barnstable through Franklin Counties for 1873. Parts of the FHL catalog specify the locations covered by the successive volumes, but not this part -- I have filled in this part by my own browsing (still a work in progress). Someday I will have this all ready for posting on the ERA web site.

Hope to see you at the reunion in Sturbridge!

John Chandler

EDITOR'S COLUMN

Hope Pobst sent the following which may be of interest to descendants of Jonas Rice (1707-1793 Worcester to Barre, MA).

The #4 schoolhouse in Barre is undergoing restoration. It is located in the Barre area settled by Jonas Rice in the 1750's.

Though this is not a structure from that era, it is located where the earliest schoolhouses were and will be a display, in site, of the early education facilities of our ancestors.

Contributions are needed for a required handicap ramp. With our thanks please send contributions to:

If the schoolhouse is ready for visitors in September, we shall let you know more at the Annual Meeting. Barre is about 40 minutes north of Sturbridge, MA.

ERA Reunion

This year, the September reunion is for the whole family and will be at Old Sturbridge Village which is an early 19th century living history museum.

We're offering discounted tickets for a 3-day pass to the park, so you can take your time and enjoy the whole experience. Daphne Stevens will kick off the event with a 30 minute overview and narrative of the park on Friday afternoon. You can enjoy the park on Friday, Saturday afternoon and all day Sunday.

The past will literally be right outside the door, including over 40 buildings, daily performances, a stagecoach to ride around the common, a riverboat ride, and costumed characters that will interact with you.

There are also animals to communicate with, woodland trails and many activities for children from all ages from Kidstory for the young and crafts for the older ones. In one building, you can try on clothes, open drawers and lie on beds. The entire village is truly amazing. You might want to see how your relatives lived in the 1830s, and if you know what they did for a living, you can better imagine their lives.

You can check out the Old Sturbridge Village website at <http://osv.org/>

OSV has block out a limited number of rooms for us (actual is 20). They will give anyone attending the Edmund Rice Association Reunion a reduced rate of $ 129 per night in the Inn known as the Oliver Wright House circa 1789 each room featuring Queen-sized cherry four-poster canopy beds or one can stay in the more modern Reeder Lodges with 2 double beds or single king bed for $ 99 per night. The room rates for Inn and Lodges includes a continental breakfast. Rooms at OSV are available for Thursday and Friday night only.

Again, rooms are limited so book your stay early. To book a room at OSV call the following number (508-347-5056); mention you are a part of the Edmund Rice Association to get the reduced rate.

If one prefers or if the OSV facilities are full then one can try the following web site for other hotels in the area <http://www.sturbridgetownships.com/content/where-to-stay.php/>.

We look forward to a fun and informative reunion.
