Vol. 93, No.3 Summer 2019

Deacon Edmund Rice Homestead
Wayland, MA 1643 - 1912

The Edmund Rice Association publishes the newsletter four times a year: 1) Winter, 2) Spring, 3) Summer, and 4) Fall. The summer newsletter is devoted to the annual September Reunion and includes a description of the program and registration information. The other three newsletters include information of more general interest to our members. We invite all cousins to submit their genealogical information, newsletter corrections, items of interest, family articles and pictures, obituaries and queries. Send them to the newsletter editor: at editor@edmund-rice.org

President's Column

Greetings, cousins!

It is proverbial that people retain vivid memories of where they were when terrible news arrived, such as 9/11 or the Challenger disaster or the assassination of President Kennedy. (That's as far back as my memories of such things go, but some of you may remember hearing the news of the attack on Pearl Harbor or the death of President Roosevelt. I'm not sure that the drafting of Elvis Presley qualified as terrible news, but I remember that, too.) Then again, what about exciting, but expected, news, such as the Alan Shepard's flight into space or Neil Armstrong's step onto the lunar surface? The former was on a school day, but I was able to watch it on television because I was out with a case of bronchitis, and I sat on the sofa wrapped in a bathrobe and blankets to watch. The latter was, of course, on a Sunday afternoon, and I watched in the student center at Clarion State College, where I was attending a summer course on archeology.

This all comes to mind now because we are celebrating the 50th anniversary of the Moon landing. (The alert reader may recall at this point that my last column referred to my 50th high school reunion and may wonder why I was attending a summer course in the gap between high school and college -- it was not for credit, rather for "enrichment", but that's another story.) Another memorable thing about that summer of 1969 was the amazing fact that some of the participants in that course had never seen the Milky Way. Needless to say, the brightly lit college campus offered little opportunity for stargazing, but, as it happens, there was a dark spot behind the student center where the night sky could actually be seen. Perhaps some of you will remember that 1969 was also the occasion of the Woodstock music festival, but I wasn't interested in that at the time. In any case, all this thinking about anniversaries leads to the fact that next year will be the 400th anniversary of Plymouth, and only 18 more years after that will be the 400th anniversary of Edmund Rice's arrival in the New World. It may be too soon to start planning for the Rice celebration, but it's not too soon to start thinking about it.

Regardless of the state of quadricentennial planning, we will be holding our annual reunion this September. See within; see you there!

Editor's Column

Hello cousins,

I'm looking forward to seeing you at the upcoming reunion, September 27-28, 2019 at Concord's Colonial Inn in Concord, MA.

The AccuWeather forecast looks fantastic for the bus tour of Concord & Lexington areas:

On another note, the last issue of the newsletter (spring 2019) was mailed with incorrect city and state information for the June birthday cousins. I apologize for the sorting error. The city and states listed didn't correspond with the name of the cousin having the birthday! I fixed the error in the version that is posted on the website.
